ALLIANCE OF PSYCHOANALYTIC PSYCHOTHERAPY TRAININGS

Thinking about training in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy?

The Alliance of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Trainings is a collaboration of two established Psychotherapy Organisations: the Arbours Association (AA) and the Association for Group and Individual Psychotherapy (AGIP) have pooled their experience and expertise to create a joint training programme.

On the Open Day, you will get a chance to meet Arbours and AGIP members who are involved with the training, and qualified psychotherapists who are successfully working in a variety of fields as well as private practice.

The Foundation Year will run on 10 Saturdays over the Academic Year 2017/2018.

The Full Three Year Training will commence in October 2017.

It will be taught from a pluralist perspective, and will include traditional psychotherapeutic concepts as well as thinking that has developed in the 21st Century.

Arbours offers intensively supervised placements in one of their residential Therapeutic Communities working alongside qualified therapists. AGIP and Arbours organise individual patient referral through their low cost Psychotherapy Services.
